SINGAPORE
INSPIRED COCKTAIL

Hendrick's gin, fresh mint, lime & prosecco, this cocktail is the perfect representation of the rejuvenating and revitalising East Coast Plan in Singapore. "For our East Coast residents, we also have a plan for the East Coast. We have East Coast, Singapore, we have a together and East Coast plan. We care at East Coast" - DPM Heng 2020.

Inspired by the real life matriarch with the same name, Aunty Rosalyn is your archetypically Peranakan Nyonya - feisty, quick-witted, mature beyond her years but still sharp as ever. Don't be fooled by her sweet and colourful kebaya - underestimate her, she'll walk all over you. Cross her, and you'd wish you never met her. With fresh lemongrass and galangal, the deceptively simple cocktail hides its alcoholic kick behind layers of spice and aromatics. Like talking to Aunty Rosalyn, proceed with caution!

發 22

There is a popular belief in Chinese culture that having oranges and pineapples at home or during special occasions can bring good luck and prosperity. This belief is often associated with the phrase "發財" (fā cái), which means "to become rich" or "to prosper." With pineapple rum and orange bitters, this cocktail is tart and refreshing, guaranteeing you to 發!

Inspired by the Solero lime ice cream, it is a lime-flavoured vanilla ice cream on a stick, with a layer of lime sorbet coating. It is a popular treat for hot and humid days, as the tartness of the lime sorbet can help to cool down and refresh the palate. Many Singaporeans have fond memories of eating Solero lime ice cream as a child, and it continues to be a beloved snack for people of all ages.

NOT SO OLD FASHIONED

20

Hey there, listen up and listen good. The Not-so Old Fashioned ain't no fruity drink for the weak-hearted. We added cardamom seeds, star anise & gula melaka, common spices used to represent our diverse cultures, and a big ol' pour of whiskey over ice. This ain't no sipping drink for the faint of heart - it's for those who know how to handle their liquor. Still interested? Grab one and let the bold flavors do the talking.

SINGAPORE SLING

First created in 1915 by Ngiam Tong Boon, a bartender at the Long Bar at the Raffles Hotel in Singapore. The Singapore Sling includes gin, cherry heering liqueur, Cointreau, Benedictine, pineapple juice, lime juice, grenadine and Angostura bitters. It is a symbol of the country's cosmopolitan and glamorous atmosphere. The drink's popularity continued to grow throughout the 1920s and 1930s, and it has become a popular tourist attraction for visitors in the city.

RUM PUM PUM

Let me tell you about a cocktail that's as cozy as a warm hug on a chilly night. This delicious drink is made with dark rum that's bold and flavourful, giving you a taste of Caribbean with every sip. The rum is mixed with rosemary and Gula Melaka, creating a unique and irresistible flavour profile that's both sweet and savoury. And to top it all off, the drink is finished with a frothy layer of milk, adding a touch of creaminess.

Bold as a boss lady in a power suit, with house blend espresso, vodka and cream. It's a rich and indulgent drink that'll give you the caffeine kick you need to conquer the night!
